UXB Explodes onto Knoxville

by Donald Gregory
UXB stands for unexploded bomb but it is also the name of one of Knoxville's newest groups. The group consists of Scott Hodge, Dale Ash, Mark Hodges, Bart McPeck, and John Sewell. Dana Ball also appears occasionally in the act with a rendition of an Jett's "Bad Reputation".
UXB first exploded onto the rock scene in Knoxville. I strongly suggest that they do. This just has some...

If an "accident" almost ruined your evening you're not alone...
